Exact x Forestall Group Integrated Management System Policy

The Exact x Forestall Group of Companies prides itself on being an expert in prevention, ensuring operational stability for its stakeholders. Symbolically and literally: companies, products and consumers are looked after by Exact x Forestall's knowledge, expertise and proactive approach to preventing potential disasters before they occur. We are aware of our organisation's impact on our surroundings, which is why we emphasise legal and ethical compliance and take responsibility for our actions.

This Integrated Management System Policy supports the strategic direction of the Exact x Forestall Group and sets out our organisation's commitments to meet the standards of quality management - ISO 9001, environmental management - ISO 14001, health and safety management - ISO 45001 and information security.

Exact x Forestall Group commits to pursuing an Integrated Management System by:

- ✗ Providing quality control solutions and technological, intellectual and human resources to guarantee operational stability to its stakeholders.
- ✗ Committing to continuous improvement of the organisation's processes.
- ✗ Complying with all generally applicable laws and ethical standards, taking into account the rules, customs, traditions and social norms of the places where we provide services.
- ✗ Respecting and upholding human rights, including compliance with international standards in this regard.
- ✗ Striving to ensure that the services offered to customers meet the highest quality standards, taking into account the issue of sustainability.
- ✗ Minimising the organisation's climate and environmental impact by reducing raw material and energy consumption and carrying out recycling and waste disposal activities.
- ✗ Respecting and protecting confidential information, personal data and intellectual property.
- ✗ Applying national and international competition laws and standards.
- ✗ Acting in accordance with the principle of zero tolerance for corrupt activities.
- ✗ Preventing conflicts of interest.
- ✗ Complying with the law on the prevention of money laundering.
- ✗ Ensuring safety and health of employees through continuous improvement of working conditions and health and safety training.
- ✗ Conducting systematic risk assessments and taking action to minimise risks to our employees and the environment.

This Exact x Forestall Group Integrated Management System Policy applies to all activities within the organisation, ensuring that quality, environmental and information security objectives are met consistently and reliably.
